

Dunklin County Library

January 2017

Branches

- Campbell, 404 W. Grand
- Cardwell, 113 N. Main
- Clarkton, 113 S. Main
- Holcomb, 210 W. Main
- Hornersville, 502 School
- Kennett, 209 N. Main
- Malden, 1203 Stokelan
- Senath, 108 N. Main

Genealogy Meeting

Wednesday, Jan 17
10 am in the Jayne Selby Genealogy Room

225th Anniversary of the Bill of Rights

A new popup display from the National Archives Traveling Exhibits Service will be featured at the Dunklin County Library in Kennett through February. The Dunklin County Library was selected to host this exhibit through the Missouri Humanities Council. "The Bill of Rights and You" display commemorates the 225th anniversary of the Bill of Rights. This display explores the origins of the first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution. It illustrates how each amendment protects U.S. citizens and looks at how Americans can exercise the rights outlined in the amendments.

A Tribute to Jewel Wayne DaVault

- For over 30 years of service to the Dunklin County Library
- For helping raise so many children who entered the library doors
- For all the watermelons and encouraging words in the Summer Reading Program
- For picking out a book for a sick library patron
- For smiling when someone entered the library
- For loving her family & friends and Elvis
- For bringing laughter to each day

Thank you! You are a jewel in our hearts, and you are missed!

Pounce by Seth Casteel
New in Nonfiction

Audiobook now available!

Jewel's Picks are the latest releases
shelved for easy access

A thriller novel by Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child. Released on 10/18/2016.

New Year with New Faces

Two branches in the Dunklin County Library system have new librarians as of January 2017. At the Campbell branch, Sara Shepherd will be checking out books for patrons as well as welcoming new patrons to discover great authors. Sara encourages book lovers to visit the library and share favorite titles with her.

Sarah Snider, who has been at the Campbell branch for the past year, will now be the librarian at Holcomb. She invites patrons to look over the great selection of books in the Holcomb branch and young adults and children to explore the collection of terrific titles.

Both branches have a wide variety of fiction choices as well as nonfiction options in biography, history, fitness, weight loss, cooking, and more. Many titles are available in large print. Books located at other branches can be transferred to the nearest branch per request. Also, public use computers are located at each branch, and wireless internet is available.

In July, the Summer Reading Program will kickoff at each branch in the county! "Build A Better World" is this year's theme. Read, laugh, and learn!

Book Discussion

"In the Sanctuary of Outcasts" tells the stories of magazine publisher Neill White during the time in his early 30s he spent incarcerated in Carville, La., and the criminals and "secret people" he met in prison who helped him transform his life. Before his conviction for check kiting, White was living the good life in a world of beautiful people. In prison, he felt decidedly out of place. He was sympathetic to the plight of the leprosy patients, but he also was afraid of contracting their disease.

Then he had an idea that he was sure would lead to fame and fortune after he was freed; he would write an expose about Carville. White began to interview patients, inmates, priests, nuns. He made friends. Disfigurements and disabilities faded into the background as he got to know and appreciate his new neighbors.

Book discussion is held the last Tuesday of each month at 7 pm in the Kennett Headquarters. This month's meeting is Tuesday, January 31, at 7 pm.

Story Time

"Winnie the Pooh and the Honey Tree" will be featured at January Story Time on Tuesday, January 31, at 6 pm.

Winnie the Pooh, the honey loving silly old bear attempts to get honey from a bee tree, so after climbing the tree didn't work, he borrows Christopher Robin's balloon, dunks himself in mud and floats to the top of the honey tree incognito as a little black rain cloud.

Children will experience this timeless classic as well as sing-alongs, games, crafts, and more. Come listen, laugh, and learn at the library in Kennett. Story Time meets the last Tuesday of the month at 6 pm.

